

Forward with purpose

USEFUL WEBSITES

oia

Office of the Independent Adjudicator for Higher Education. independent student complaints scheme for England and Wales.

UKCISA

The UK Council for International Student Affairs (UKCISA) is the UK's national advisory body supporting international students and those who work with them.

Student Minds

Student Minds is the UK's premier platform for student well-being and mental health, offering resources like links to charities, helplines, on-campus running groups, and articles with tips for maintaining mental health in university.

The British Council's Study UK

The British Council's Study UK website offers international students practical guidance on UK education, including application processes, scholarships, and connections to approved agents in their home countries for university applications.

NUS

NUS, the National Union of Students, is a vital organization that represents university and college students across the UK. It advocates for student interests, fosters inclusivity, and addresses various issues, providing support and a platform for student voices.

Deposit Protection Service

mydeposits

Tenancy Deposit Scheme

In the UK, tenancy deposit protection is a legal requirement that safeguards a tenant's deposit. Landlords must place the deposit in a government-approved scheme, ensuring transparency, dispute resolution, and fair practices. Non-compliance can result in penalties and compensation for the tenant.